

Part 1 Asset 1

The inspiration for this asset comes from a member of the Computer Science Society who is known to be one of the cutest people alive on the server.

I took their profile picture and made it into a person.

Part 1 Asset 2

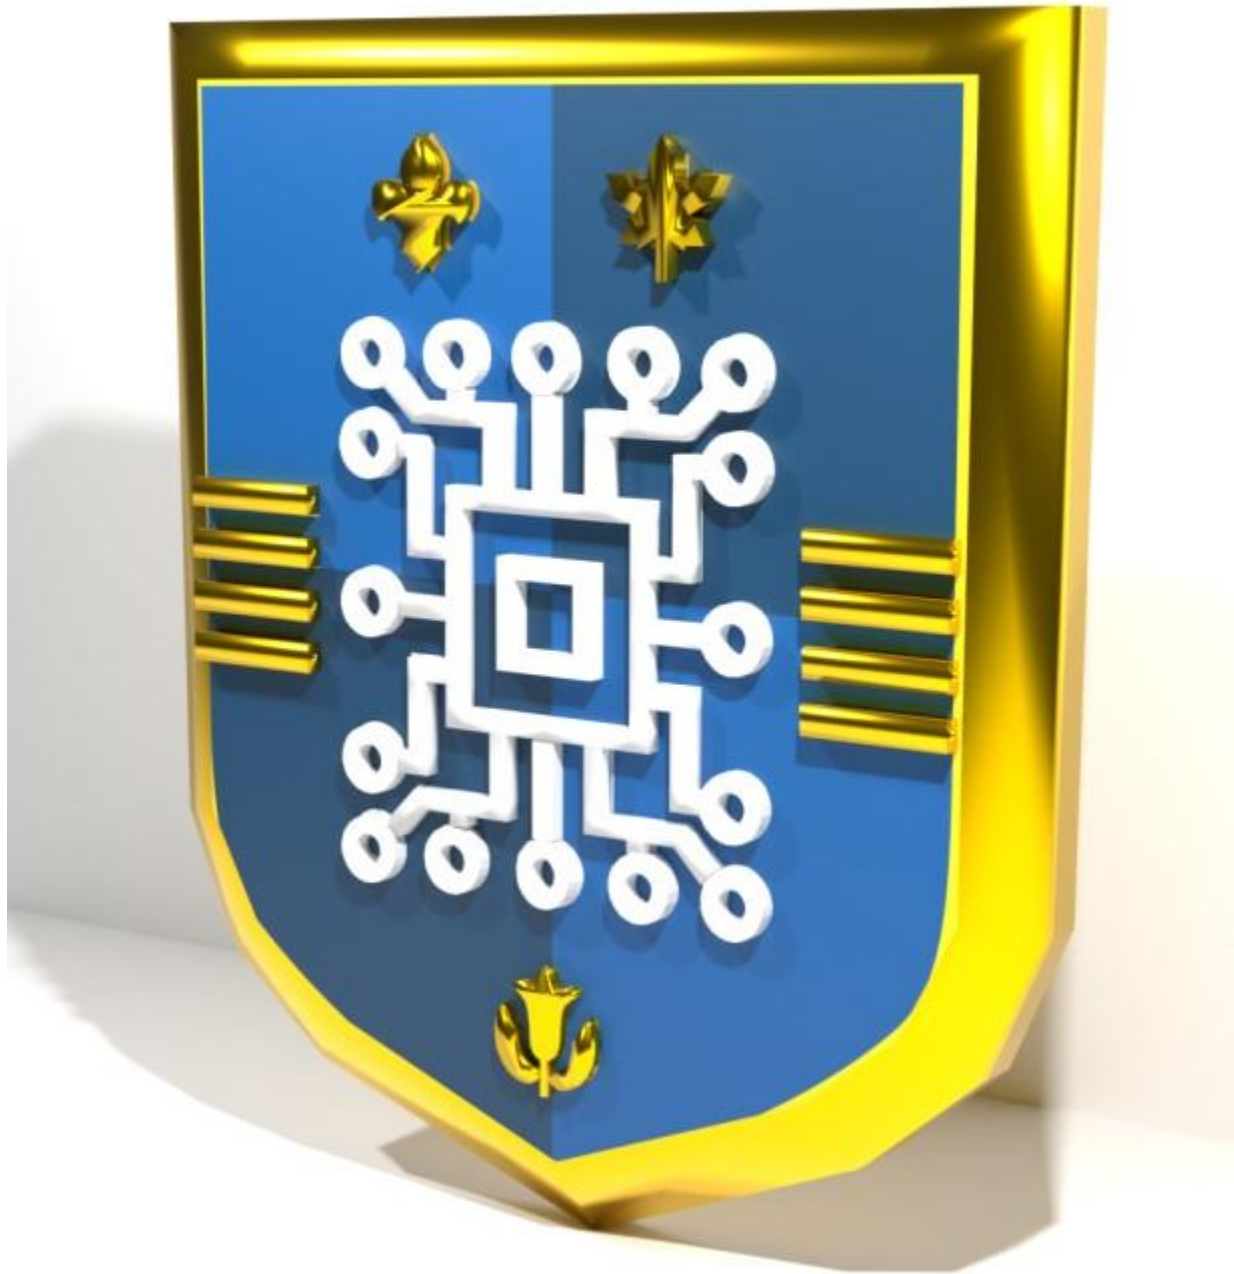

The inspiration for this model comes from a member of the CSS Board who is known to love boba tea.

I took their campaign image and made it into a 3D model.

Part 1 Asset 3

This asset was inspired by the CSS Logo, I turned it into a proper shield that can be used to protect yourself.

Part 1 Asset 4

This character is based on my OC that was loosely based off myself, he is essentially me in a trench coat with cooler hair.

Part 1 Asset 5

This character is obviously based off of Agent 47 from the HITMAN series.

Part 1 Asset 6

This character is a buff variant of the previous character.

Part 2 Asset 1

This scene was inspired by my friend who had dreamed of opening a café with the same name.

Part 2 Asset 2

This scene was inspired by an edit I made of the former CSS President as the Joker, I decided to make a church around it.

Part 2 Asset 3

This scene was inspired by an edit I made of the CSS Promotions Coordinator, I decided to make a church around it.
